In these circumstances, it is very important for you to review any applicable terms and conditions before you complete the transaction.

2.5. Where there are specific terms and conditions between us and you for types of Services provided via the Site or by email or phone, these are outlined below.

3. Dining

- 3.1. Ten works with third party restaurant and dining Suppliers to offer exclusive and non-exclusive bookings, special benefits and offers to Members as part of the Concierge Service.
- 3.2. You accept that special benefits and offers with Suppliers are subject to availability and may change from time to time and without notice. It is important to note that not all of the Services made available or provided on the Site are available in all jurisdictions.
- 3.3. We reserve the right to deny restaurant reservation requests from you if you repeatedly fail to show up for bookings or violate any Supplier’s terms and conditions including their cancellation terms.

4. Tickets

- 4.1. Ten works with third party ticketing and event Suppliers to quote details of face value tickets, hospitality tickets and tickets from secondary market agents to Members as part of the Concierge Service.
- 4.2. All tickets are subject to availability.

- 4.3. If you decide to order tickets from a Supplier quoted by us, you shall authorise us to arrange for payment of the tickets on your behalf. Once you have given us authorisation to purchase tickets with the Supplier on your behalf, you will be liable to pay the full price for the tickets. Once the purchase is confirmed, no refunds or exchanges will be available.
- 4.4. You shall enter into a contract for the sale and/or supply of the tickets with the relevant Supplier. Ten or the Client shall not be party to this contract.
- 4.5. You should ensure that you check both the booking confirmation and the tickets you receive and notify us immediately if any details are incorrect or there are any discrepancies. Where an error has been made by us, we will endeavour to resolve the error with the appropriate level of cost and/or compensation. In all other cases, we will endeavour to assist you with correcting the error without incurring any financial liability.
- 4.6. We will endeavour to advise you if any tickets have restricted view prior to your purchase. Tickets will be considered restricted view only if specified by the Supplier, box office, venue and/or on the physical tickets.
- 4.7. The Supplier, together with us, will select the method and company used for ticket delivery. Often tickets will be sent via secure post or courier which will require a signature upon delivery. When delivery is attempted, if you are unavailable you will need to collect from the local sorting office or, where appropriate, organise a re-delivery directly with the courier company. We will offer support with any deliveries but will not be held liable for errors not caused by us.
- 4.8. Tickets are usually delivered between 5 to 7 days before the date of the event, with the exception of theatre tickets, which are sent once after the booking is made. The date upon which tickets are released is controlled by the promoters of the event (and not us), who often delay delivery in order to reduce both fraudulent activity and the risk of tickets being misplaced.
- 4.9. When tickets are purchased through secondary ticket agents, the Supplier will make every effort to deliver them several days before the event. However, they reserve the right to deliver tickets up to 24 hours in advance and on rare occasions may arrange for you to meet a representative at the venue.
- 4.10. It is your responsibility to advise us of any change of address which may affect your booking, or if you plan to be away in the days leading up to the event.
- 4.11. If tickets are misplaced and originally purchased through a face value box office, tickets can often be duplicated. It is unlikely that tickets will be re-issued prior to the event date and will therefore need to be collected from the box office. In order to collect tickets in this way, the cardholder and the card that was used to purchase the tickets need to be present. Letters of authorisation are subject to the venue box office's discretion and in some instances, may not be accepted.
- 4.12. If tickets purchased through secondary ticket agents are misplaced, it is extremely difficult to arrange duplicates or box office collection, since they usually need to be collected by the individual who originally purchased the tickets. If this occurs, we will endeavour to arrange for duplicates or collection, but if we are unable to do so we cannot provide a refund.
- 4.13. If you find you are unable to attend an event and would like advice on re-selling your tickets, please contact us for further information.
- 4.14. While we will endeavour to update you if we become aware of any changes made to the date or time of your event, we cannot take responsibility to inform you if an event is cancelled or to provide details if it is rearranged by the event promoter. Where tickets are purchased through the secondary market, tickets will usually be valid for the rescheduled date. If you are not able to make the new date, refunds are at the relevant Supplier's discretion. We are not responsible for any additional financial outlay, such as for accommodation or transport, that occurs as a result of a cancelled or rescheduled date.
- 4.15. For tickets purchased direct through the box office, if the event is cancelled, you will receive a full refund direct from the box office. If the event is postponed, refunds will not be given until a new date has been rescheduled. If you cannot attend the new date, then you are normally entitled to a full refund.
- 4.16. Please ensure you check your credit card statement that your credit card has been charged for the amount of your tickets within 3 to 5 days of booking. If this is not the case then please call your Lifestyle Manager.
- 4.17. In the unusual event that a Supplier (box office or secondary market ticket supplier) goes insolvent, bankrupt or does not deliver the tickets, we cannot accept liability for the loss of tickets. The relevant terms and conditions between you and the Supplier will apply. We shall offer assistance and act on behalf of the Member to endeavour to remedy the situation. As a minimum, this will include:
- a) advising the Member of the chargeback process, if they have paid by debit or credit card, whereby Visa / MasterCard / Amex go to the vendor to try to re-coup the money. Note that there is a time limit within which this chargeback process is applicable; and / or
 - b) if the Member chooses to purchase new tickets, sourcing alternative tickets to match the original order as closely as possible in terms of location, price and date.

5. Events and Benefits

- 5.1. Ten works with Suppliers to share details of events and/or benefits to Members as part of the Concierge Service.

- 5.2. Benefits are subject to availability.
- 5.3. Benefits may be withdrawn at any time and without prior notice.
