Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Revolut Technologies Inc., Revolut Securities, Inc., and Revolut Wealth Inc. (collectively, "Revolut")

What we do

How does Revolut protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Revolut collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or use your credit card, prepaid card, or securities account
- Apply for a loan
- Give us your contact information
- Provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for:

- affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Our affiliates include financial companies with Revolut in their name such as Revolut Ltd and Revolut Holdings US Inc.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Revolut US does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Revolut US does not jointly market.
