

List of Most Representative Services

(Please note that the full list of the most representative services in Lithuania in Lithuanian language is published on the website of the Bank of Lithuania)

Term	Definition
Maintaining the account	The account service provider services the account opened in the name of a customer
Providing a debit card	The account service provider issues a debit card linked to the customer's account. Every payment initiated by use of the debit card is immediately debited from customer's account.
Cash withdrawal	The customer takes out cash from his account.
SEPA credit transfer	Account service provider transfers funds from the customer's account to another account as instructed by the customer. Applicable to EUR payments made to the accounts opened in countries belonging to SEPA area.
Non SEPA credit transfer	Account service provider transfers funds from the customer's account to another account as instructed by the customer. Applicable to non-EUR payments or to payments made to the accounts opened in countries that do not belong to SEPA area.
Administration of EUR incoming payments	Account service provider administers the incoming EUR payments from the accounts opened in countries belonging to SEPA area.
Administration of cross border incoming payments	Account service provider administers the incoming non-EUR payments or payments from the accounts opened in countries that do not belong to SEPA area.