1. Why this information is important

This information sets out the extra services we provide to our Plus, Premium and Metal users. It also sets out other important things that you need to know.

These terms and conditions are part of the legal agreement (the agreement) between you and us referred to in the Personal Terms (the personal terms). If there is any inconsistency between the personal terms and these terms and conditions, these terms and conditions will apply.

You can ask for a copy of these terms and conditions through the Revolut app or from one of our support agents at any time.

Please read these terms and conditions carefully.

Your subscription for the Plus, Premium or Metal service will automatically renew every year unless you give us notice to end it before the automatic renewal. Regardless of how you pay your subscription, we may charge a fee if you end the subscription within 10 months of it starting. Our fees are set out on the Fees page.

We may restrict your right to upgrade or downgrade your subscription more than once in a 12-month period.

The Metal/Premium/Plus Services

3. What are the Plus services?

- up to three active physical Revolut cards at any one time;

4. What are the Premium services?

Premium users have access to all the services available to users on a Plus and Standard plan, as well as the following benefits:

- two free Revolut Premium cards upfront (and one free replacement each subsequent year);
- access to up to 3 Revolut Junior accounts with the full set features;
- unlimited free currency exchange;
- double the free ATM withdrawal allowance of Standard users;
- unlimited free cross-border payments outside the SEPA region;
- one free SWIFT payment each month;
- international travel insurance;
- the opportunity to buy airport lounge passes; and
- access to cryptocurrency and precious metals at better rates than Standard and Plus users.

5. What are the Metal services?

Metal users have access to all the services available to Standard, Plus and Premium users above, as well as the following benefits:

- one free contactless stainless steel Revolut Metal card;
- cashback in a number of currencies, precious metals or cryptocurrencies (these may change from time to time);
- four times the free ATM withdrawal allowance of Standard users;
- higher interest rates for Savings Vaults (where they are available to us);
- access to up to 5 Revolut Junior accounts with the full set of features; and
- any other benefits we add from time to time.

6. The Metal cashback service

When Metal users pay for certain things with their Metal Card, we may (but do not have to) credit your account with an amount of e-money equivalent to a percentage of your payment. We call this a cashback. We may change the percentage of the cashback for any reason, including the country you make the payment in or the merchant you make the payment to. All Metal cashback for EEA and Swiss customers will be earned at a rate of 0.1% in Europe and 1% outside Europe.

There is a limit to how much Metal Cashback you can receive in one monthly billing cycle. This is set out in our Fees Page.

We recover the cashback from you if:

- the payment that earned the Metal cashback is refunded to you;
- you earned the Metal cashback fraudulently; or

- you broke this agreement in order to get the Metal cashback.

We will recover the amount of the Metal cashback by taking it out of your account. We will consider the recovery to be done with your consent and the payment to be authorised by you. If we cannot recover the amount of the Metal cashback from your account, you will still owe us the relevant amount. We may then recover the amount from a stored card or exercise our right of set-off. We may also take legal steps to recover the amount you owe us. If we do, you may have to pay our reasonable costs of doing so.

You can read more about how we can recover amounts that you owe us in the Personal Terms.

Payments that won't earn a cashback

We can't give you cashback when doing so would break any law or regulation, or if the payment you make with your Revolut card is just to another account or payment card (such as another e-wallet, a bank account or a credit card).

7. Plus Revolut Card

If you become a Plus user you'll be able to order a Plus Revolut Card (a Plus Card). We'll also issue an extra Plus Card if you ask for one. You can still use other Revolut cards you have. We may charge fees for any Plus Cards that we issue.

8. Premium Revolut Card

If you become a Premium user you'll be able to order a Premium Revolut Card (a Premium Card) with exclusive designs. We'll also issue an extra Premium Card if you ask for one. You can still use other Revolut cards you have.

We may charge fees for any Premium Cards that we issue.

9. Metal Revolut Card

If you upgrade to Metal, we'll issue you with a Metal Revolut Card (a Metal Card) that is only available to Metal users. You can only hold one Metal Card at any time. You can still use other Revolut cards you have.

Insurance

10. Travel insurance as part of your Premium and Metal subscription

We know that when you're looking forward to travelling the last thing you want to do is arrange insurance. This is why we at Revolut arrange travel insurance for you.

Revolut is not an insurer, but arranges the travel insurance for Premium and Metal users from a third party insurance provider. The cost of this insurance is covered by your Premium or Metal subscription fee.

Revolut only arranges travel insurance and doesn't encourage its staff to sell you insurance. Revolut doesn't control insurance providers.

The continuing provision, scope and terms of the insurance benefits may be changed or cancelled by us or the third party insurance provider at any time. Wherever possible, we will give you advance notice of any detrimental changes to or cancellation of the insurance benefits. You cannot cancel your insurance contract without also cancelling your subscription to the Premium or Metal service.

Please read the travel insurance Conditions for Beneficiaries document carefully. There is a copy of it in the Revolut app.

To be eligible for insurance you must be aged over 18 and. The insurance only covers medical treatment, tests and surgery that are related to a serious illness or injury you went to hospital for while on an "eligible trip" as defined in the Conditions for Beneficiaries document.

The definition of "trip" in the Conditions for Beneficiaries document may change from time to time in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Policy, but currently means a holiday or journey which starts when you leave your primary residence and ends on your return to your primary residence and:

- is at least 100 kilometres away from your primary residence; or
- is abroad; or
- is outside your city/town of residence, provided that your travel includes an overnight stay.

A trip does not include travel to and from your normal place of work and you must follow the travel advice issued by the government of your country of residence. Each trip must not exceed 90 consecutive days and must start and end during the period of insurance. No cover is provided by this policy whatsoever for trips which are longer than 90 consecutive days in duration, this includes any part of a trip that is longer than 90 days.

We cannot guarantee that the insurance is suitable for you. We arrange the insurance and give you information on the insurance contract. We can't advise you on the suitability of the policy or recommend it to you.

If you don't meet the conditions for having the insurance, this doesn't change the subscription you pay for the Premium or Metal service.

11. Complaints and insurance claims

If you are unhappy with how your travel insurance was arranged, please get in touch through the Revolut app. Problems can usually be quickly solved in this way. Details for complaints handling are provided in the Personal Terms.

Complaints about the travel insurance

If you want to make a complaint in connection with the travel policy, please contact the relevant third party insurance providers. You can find out how to do this in the insurance section of the Revolut app. If you send any complaint or claim to us, we will pass it on to the relevant third party insurance provider without dealing with it.

How to make a claim under the travel insurance

If you want to make a claim, please contact the relevant third party insurance provider directly. You can find out how to do this in the insurance section of the Revolut app.

12. Purchase, Refund, Ticket Cancellation insurance as part of your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription

The rights and obligations set out in this section apply to you and Revolut Payments UAB (Revolut). This section describes:

- how you will receive purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance as part of your subscription; and
- how our insurance partner, QOVER SA, registered with the Crossroads Bank for Enterprises under number 0650.939.878 (RLE Brussels) and registered at FSMA as an untied insurance agent under number 0650.939.878, (Qover) is responsible to you for handling any claim you make under your purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance, and for making any payments to you after a successful claim.

We know that when you're looking forward to buying a new phone, laptop or tickets to your favorite concert the last thing you want to do is arrange insurance. This is why purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance has been included in your plan for you.

Revolut is not an insurer, but has worked with Qover to provide purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance as a group policy for all its Plus, Premium and Metal users. The cost of this insurance is covered by your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription fee.

Revolut only includes purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance from Qover in its plans, and doesn't encourage its staff to sell you insurance. Revolut doesn't control or own Qover in any way, and Qover doesn't control or own Revolut.

We pay Qover for your purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance using part of your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription fee. When we take your subscription fee from your Revolut Account, we hold the cost of your purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance as Qover's agent until it is actually passed on to Qover. This means that your insurance is effectively paid for without delay when we take your subscription fee from your Revolut Account. Similarly, if you become entitled to a refund of your subscription fee at any point, this money becomes yours when we actually pay it to you.

Qover will handle any claim that you make under your insurance directly with you. If you are owed any claim under your insurance, Qover will make this payment direct to you.

Qover's address is Rue du Commerce 31 in 1000 Brussels, Belgium.

Should you wish to end your insurance cover while continuing your subscription to the Plus, Premium or Metal service, you can request this via the Revolut app. The cost of your subscription will not change if you do this.

To be eligible for insurance you must be aged 18 or above and you must have made the relevant purchase in full with your Revolut Plus, Premium or Metal account. There are also additional eligibility requirements you must satisfy, which depend on whether you are seeking to make a purchase, refund or ticket cancellation claim. The full list of criteria can be found in the purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance policy.

Please read the purchase, refund and ticket cancellation insurance policy carefully. There is a copy of it in the Revolut app.

We cannot guarantee that the insurance is suitable for you. We can't advise you on the suitability of the policy or recommend it to you.

Please make sure the insurance is suitable for you by reading the product information document, statement of insurance and insurance policy, paying attention to what is and isn't covered.

If you don't meet the conditions for having the insurance, this doesn't change the subscription you pay for the Plus, Premium or Metal service.

Fees and cancelling

14. Paying your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription

You can pay your subscription fee in monthly instalments or pay the full subscription once a year. These fees are set out in our Fees page.

When you become a Plus, Premium or Metal user we will ask you to pay the subscription from a debit card or credit card you've registered with us (your stored card). We will take the subscription from that stored card while you remain a Plus, Premium or Metal user.

If we can't take payment from your stored card for any reason (for example, because it has expired), we will ask you to register another card which will become your new stored card. If you don't do this within seven days, we'll take the subscription from your account. We may also take legal steps to collect the payment. If we do, you may have to pay our reasonable costs of doing so.

You may be responsible for paying any taxes or costs that we are not responsible for collecting from you.

Unfortunately, if you do not pay the subscription within 30 days of it becoming due, we'll have to cancel your subscription.

15. Fees for downgrading your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription

You can end your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription at any time (we call this a downgrade). However, you may have to pay a fee. You'll still be able to benefit from the services you get for your subscription until the end of the month you have paid a subscription for. After then, you'll become a Standard user again (a personal account holder who does not pay a subscription for the Plus, Premium or Metal service).

We may waive the fee you pay for a downgrade. Where we do this, you might need to promise to do (or not do) certain things to be eligible for the waiver. For example, we might waive your downgrade fee if you sign up to a new plan, but you might need to promise not to cancel that new plan within a certain time. Whether or not we will waive a fee is our decision. We'll let you know if we are willing to waive a break fee for you (for example, in app or by email).

The fees for ending or downgrading your subscription are set out below.

If you downgrade within 14 days

If you pay your subscription in monthly instalments, we'll give you a full refund of your subscription. If we sent a Plus or Premium Card to you, we'll charge you the delivery fee, and may deactivate the card. If you ordered a Metal Card, we'll charge you EUR 40 for the card (or the equivalent in the currency of your Revolut account), plus any delivery fee.

If you pay the full subscription once a year, we'll give you a full refund of your subscription. If we sent a Plus or Premium Card to you, we'll charge you the delivery fee, and may deactivate the card. If you ordered a Metal Card, we'll charge you EUR 40 for the card (or the equivalent in the currency of your Revolut account), plus any delivery fee.

We call this your right of withdrawal. This means that you can withdraw from your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription within the first 14 days of subscribing. You have a right to withdraw without paying any penalties (except for the Metal Card and delivery) and without having to indicate any reason.

If you downgrade after 14 days but within 10 months

If you pay your subscription in monthly instalments, we won't make any refund and you'll have to pay the subscription for the month in which you tell us you'd like to end or downgrade your subscription. We'll also charge a break fee equal to two months' subscription.

If you pay the full subscription once a year, we won't refund any of the full year's subscription you paid, but we won't charge a break fee.

If you downgrade after more than 10 months

If you pay your subscription in monthly instalments, you'll have to pay the subscription for the month in which you tell us you'd like to end or downgrade your subscription, but we won't charge a break fee.

If you pay the full subscription once a year, we won't refund any of the full year's subscription you paid, but we won't charge a break fee.

It's easy to end or downgrade your subscription

If you'd like to cancel your subscription, you can let us know through the Revolut app or by writing to us at Konstitucijos ave. 21B, 08130 Vilnius, the Republic of Lithuania.

16. When can you end my Plus, Premium or Metal subscription?

We can suspend access to your account and end your Plus, Premium or Metal subscription immediately if:

- we suspect you are behaving fraudulently or otherwise criminally;
- you haven't given us the information we need, or we have good reason to believe that the information you have given us is false;

- you have broken these terms and conditions in a serious or persistent way;
- you owe us money and, despite us asking you to pay us, you have not done so within a reasonable period of time;
- you've been declared bankrupt; or
- we must do so under any law, regulation, court order or ombudsman's instructions.

We may also end your subscription for other reasons, but we will give you at least two months' notice through the Revolut app, by text message or in an email.

17. We can change these terms

We can change these terms and conditions, but we'll only do so for the following reasons:

- if we think it will make them easier to understand or more helpful to you;
- to reflect the way our business is run, particularly if the change is needed because of a change in the way any financial system or technology is provided;
- to reflect legal or regulatory requirements that apply to us;
- to reflect changes in the cost of running our business; or
- because we are changing our products or services or introducing new ones.

Telling you about changes

If we add a new product or service that doesn't change these terms and conditions, we may add the product or service immediately and let you know before you use it.

If we change an existing product or service that does not relate to payments into or out of your account (for example, the concierge service), we'll normally give you 30 (thirty) days' notice before we make the change. If we make a change that relates to payments into or out of your account (for example, in relation to cash withdrawals), we'll normally give you at least sixty (60) days notice through the Revolut app before we make any change.

If we give you notice of a change, we'll assume you're happy with the change unless you tell us that you want to close your account before the change comes into effect.
